WE'RE BURSTING OUT WITH COLOR

As our Page 1 story says, "Christmas has really arrived at THE RECORD."

We hope our readers noticed the two pages printed in color in this edition.

The multi-colored section was made possible by our new duplex tubular press, but its publication was not a simple task. The red and green Christmas pages are the first ever printed in color by this newspaper.

Our new equipment will make it possible to bring much more to our readers in format, brightness of the paper and versatility in presenting attractive editorial and commercial displays in both black and white and color.

We have undertaken this major expansion program because we have confidence in the citizens of this city and its business enterprises—and we are confident that we can continue to serve them better by continuing to keep pace with growth through introduction of modern equipment and methods.

We're proud that we have been able to make our initial color publication just a few days before Christmas so that our Season's Best to the Daly City area could be made in the traditional red and green befitting the season and its Yuletide sentiments.

We'll be printing color again and we'll be publishing bigger and brighter and better papers.

But we'll still remain awfully proud of this edition, our first in color . . . and glad we're able to serve the many families and businesses that help make these innovations possible.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Weekly Newspaper Makes City Strong, Oroville Editor Says

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

Enclosed is a check for $3. Please use it for a subscription for my daughter, Mrs. Alice-Mae Nyburg, 1140 Nimitz drive, Colma. The mail address, I understand, can be either Colma or Daly City.

I have found on visiting her that because she takes the Examiner and not the local paper she doesn't know very much about county ordinances, who supplies the water, is it chlorinated and fluoridated, etc. I hope that by reading your paper she will become a well-informed citizen. For the same reason, I hope that your paper grows and prospers. A newspaper, in my mind, is the cement that holds a community together and makes it strong. Please pardon all the philosophy.

I want this to be in the nature of a Christmas gift, so would prefer to have you start the mailings the week of December 17, and if you could include in the wrapping a little note, I'd be very much pleased.

Sincerely,
Dan Beebe

Bocci Sentences Drunk Driver Who 'Bit' DC Officer

Mrs. Doris Pfaff, 27-year-old Burlingame housewife who caused a big ruckus after she was arrested for drunk driving here last week, was sentenced to 30 days in jail or $250 fine in municipal court Tuesday.

The woman, picked up on Mission near Hillside boulevard, bit Police Sgt. Dean Wood on the finger and kicked Officer James Bergstrom as they attempted to take her to Junipero Serra hospital for a sobriety test.

Appearing before Judge Thomas L. Bocci in a much gentler mood, Mrs. Pfaff meekly pleaded guilty to the main charge and two speeding counts.

In other court action:

1. Alfred R. Zeller, 27 Hillcrest drive, was fined $50 for disturbing the peace December 6.

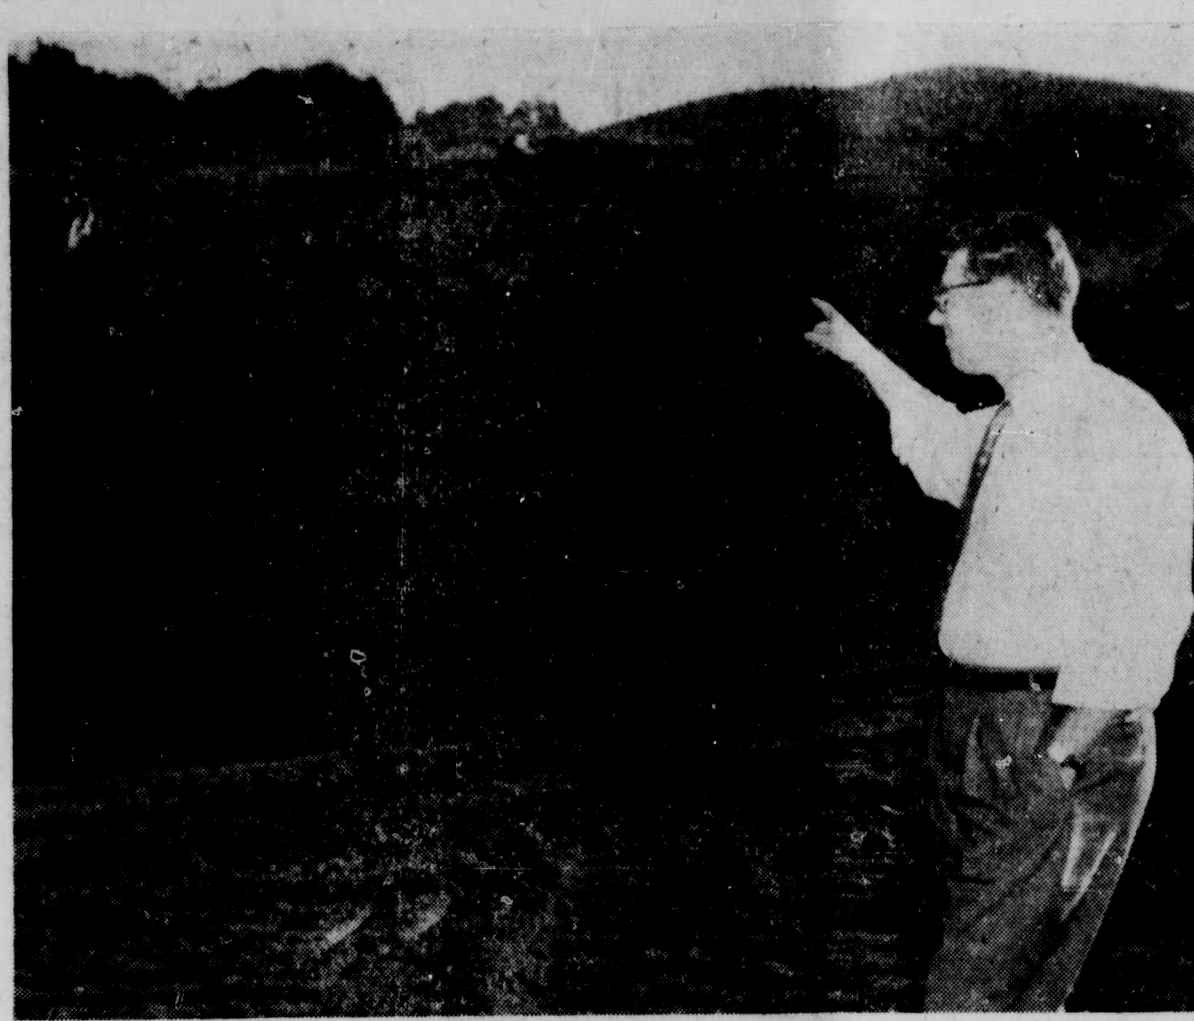

2. Barbara LeCartz, 119 Haight street, San Francisco, arrested December 7 as drunk in a public place, was given a choice of 20 days in jail or a $100 fine.

3. Olof Nordin, 144 Parkview, arrested December 7 as drunk in a public place, was fined $25.

4. William Parsons, 215 Crocker avenue, drunk in a public place December 7, was given 10 days to pay a $10 fine.

5. John P. Brennan, 61 Hill street, drunk in a public place December 5, forfeited $25 bail.

6. James V. Grealish, 36 Weston drive, drunk in and about an auto December 6, forfeited $50 bail.

BUILDER George McKeon envisions 2600 homes as heavy equipment crews begin grading the 276-acre St. Francis Heights subdivision. The area, west of Junipero Serra, will include a multi-million dollar shopping center and a professional building. Homes will start at $17,500 and are expected to swell Daly City's population by 7500. THE RECORD photo

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

Christmas is really here—not just the usual frantic last-minute shopping or wrapping or finishing up odd jobs in time, but the Christmas which comes with carols on the radio, "Christmas Carol" on the TV (and the Maxwell Anderson adaptation had lovely music in it), the happy feeling you can get when you drive through the Village streets at night and see the lights and trees, and the wonderful feeling you can get when you step out of the front door for a minute and look up at the stars. And this is only part of it—the least significant part of it, at that. Take time for that other important part; it belongs to each of us alone, as families, as friends, and as members of a world with too many heart-aches.

Holiday spirit descended up the Broadmoor Community Center a weekend or two ago when the BPOA invited all the young adults to a tree-trimming, complete with popcorn, coke, and dancing. Virginia Voreyer, who engineered things, said everyone seemed to have a good time. In line with this activity, we think a note of appreciation should be extended to the members of the BPOA and the ideas they are trying to work out, to say nothing of the outlook they have concerning the Village and its pros and cons.

Birthdays, always birthdays, even with holidays close ahead. Two Village Lane young ones had parties, Debbie Lee and Mike Bullen. Debbie's party found the guests making their own party hats, and some of the results were ingenious indeed. With eight candles on the cake to blow out, and a Christmas-y theme around and about, a very good time was had by the hostess and guests Patsy Kramer, Janie Luttringer, Debbie Galusha, Karen Guymon, Debbie Leech, Ginny Jones, Claudia Guz, Kathy Wilson, Patsy Phillips, Patty Holm, Tommy Lee and Richard Benard.

Mike's was a 7th birthday, and he took his guests to the show—plus cake and ice cream, of course. Tommy and Jeanie Olsen, Timmy Pappas, Wayne and Marty Cloonan, Joey Fernekes, Perky Gillespie, Stevie Blake, Bruce Herald and Barbara and Chuck Bullen were the enthusiastic tribe which swarmed around the movie ticket office—and consumed quantities of cake!

Early Gifts

Some early Christmas presents arrived for Doris and Fred Hartsfield of Larchmont and for Art and Betty Cooper of Thornhill. First was Cynthia Ann Hartsfield, 6 lbs., 9 oz., who is a good reason for a happy holiday for twins Fred and Freda and sister Paula, and next came Arthur Charles Cooper, Jr., 7 lbs., 1 oz., who has sisters Sharon and Nancy adoring him already.

Poor Stephen Jacobsen of 2nd street, D. C., tried twice to have a birthday party, but attacks of flu spoiled plans both times, so he gave it up. He didn't do too badly, though, for family and friends didn't let him down in the gift department. After all, a fellow is 6 only once! Steve plans to be completely well by Christmas, you may be sure.

Helen Mackintosh and both children have had colds, Karen Anderson has been home from school for almost a week, and Mrs. White, 4th grade teacher at BF School, had to take a couple of days off—almost because of not feeling quite up to snuff. They will be up and percolating by Christmas—if they're not already. Happy to report that Manuel Silva is back at GV School, and that all "this" children are glad he's out of the hospital.

Usually John Bertkins, of Stewart, plans to go back to his home territory around this time and cut the family Christmas tree, said territory being Mari-posa, where there are certainly trees to be had. This year, he's too busy, so there goes that nice quail-hunting session which he always manages to fit in, too!

Cocoonets

Most interesting things we've been asked to do in a long time happened when Iris MacCarthy, one of Sweetwood's best, called to ask if we remembered the words to "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Cocoonets." Seems her cousin needed them as one of the numbers in a program planned at a Red Cross get-together of girls who had served in England, etc., during World War II. The words? Well, we worked out a suitable rhymed grouping with Iris!

Looking ahead somewhat, we checked with Warren Vocke to see how the proposed second Broadmoor parade was coming. It was, and is, coming very well, with quite a few entries set to go. Since the parade is planned for Sunday, February 10, at 1 p.m., it won't be long before the Vocke house on MacArthur is a tumult of phone calls and lists and people running in and out!

Gifts from a Christmas stocking: The new Pontiac at the Smiths' house on Maddux. . . Pierre, the dog who resides with the Orloffs on Stewart. He is a shepherd-collie combination, and his previous owner named him Pierre so he would not have an inferiority complex about his mixed ancestry! . . . The every-other-window appearance of a popular way of stenciling Christmas designs (yep, us too!) . . . Caroline Brown's fabulous Christmas cookies making their way into the hands and hearts of all the neighborhood children on Stewart street. . . Peggy Northrup of same street sending some of her hours at the Emporium helping out during the Christmas rush. . . The Macklins' big evergreen tree—when will it wear its net of lights?

Candlelight Cantata

"King of Kings," Daniel Protheroe's cantata to be presented by the choir of the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, will be sung at 4 p.m. on Sunday, December 23—not on Sunday, December 16, as previously announced. It will be a lovely candlelight occasion which everyone is invited to attend. Since some people had already made plans including the cantata, we were asked to mention the time change so that other plans could be changed also.

Something concerning Villagers lately is, when are there going to be sidewalks on 87th street? So many children and high schoolers and mothers with packages must walk it that it seems too bad for them to have nothing to walk on but a dusty—muddy—trail on one side and either a slippery gutter or a prickly field on the other. Besides, some Villagers say, and we agree, that it's too bad that the main entrance road to this area doesn't look a little neater.

Another Village family has left—Pat and George Redmond. They have left Sweetwood for the east, and will be living in Ohio. They plan to spend Christmas with Pat's mother. We have heard rumors of several other departures being at least thought of, and some which will probably happen.

Christmas Spirit

Christmas spirit plus has been the watchword among friends and neighbors who have been helping Doris Cunningham with housework, laundry, etc., while she was confined to bed. Many have been the hands busy in that Sweetwood home, including Doris' own when it came to making Santa Claus. We hate to have to say that, at this writing, Doris is back in the hospital. We hope that all is well with her when this is read, and that she will be home with her family for the holidays.

Also heard of a feminine painting cooperative formed by Billie Buchanan, Dorothy Moyle and Eileen Crofton. They just finished painting Eileen's living room, dining room and hall, and Billie's house is the next to be attacked—after January 1. Hear that dining room set is quite something, Eileen! If you're wanting to find these energetic ladies, they live on Manila, Nimitz and Midway, respectively.

That Christmas scene on the lot at 87th and Washington is there by courtesy of the BPOA and several helpful Village citizens, and we heard last week that plans were being made to have carols sung by various church groups during the days before Christmas. There will be recorded music too; how nice that there is a stop sign there so that everyone can hear at least some of the songs and be able to look at the scene for a little while in passing.

So once again it's time to say Merry Christmas to everybody, and particularly those somebodies who are always the ones to pick up everyone else's children at school, bake the needed cakes or cookies for meetings,

TV and Radio

By Mona . . .

WORLD OF TOMORROW . . . Past the guard at the gate . . . up a steep hill . . . into a huge concrete building . . . and suddenly we found ourselves in a "world of tomorrow." We felt we were really in another world because we had stepped into the internationally famous Radiation Laboratory of the University of California where discoveries have been made and are being made which will influence our lives and the lives of generations to come.

Down the hallway past geiger counters which gave off a static warning when we placed our arm (with a wrist watch) near the machine . . . past room after room filled with highly technical equipment, and on the door of each room a printed warning about radioactivity to all employees . . . on to the "Cave Room" where research with radioactive materials is conducted and where KQED's press conference was being held.

Around us was an assortment of technical equipment, huge ovens, machines with lights flashing, and we wouldn't have been at all surprised if a "Man From Mars" had suddenly stepped in the room.

Certainly a more appropriate place could not have been selected than this history-making room which is the actual locale of KQED's new television series, "The Elements," (starts Friday, Jan. 11, 4 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.) featuring Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, Nobel Prize-winning chemist and one of the most distinguished scientists in the world.

The press conference began and as we were introduced to one noted scientist after the other, their names read like an edition of "Who's Who." Dr. Seaborg is just the sort of person we would picture in our mind to be a world-famous scientist and a great man. Tall and dignified, he is extremely brilliant and capable, yet beneath it, one detects a great modesty.

During his talk he said he was glad to do this television series because he hopes this program will help to interest more young people in the field of science and will provide a means of helping in the current crisis of shortage of scientist and teachers. Also he said, "We've reached the place where we feel everyone should know more about science."

Talking to Dr. Seaborg during the intermission we questioned him as to the age level of youngsters who might be watching the program. He said they hope the series will interest younger children as well as those of high school age and adults.

The programs will be shown throughout the United States on 25 other educational television stations during the next six months, and KQED is to be congratulated on producing such an outstanding program of national importance.

News From Here & There

By Eleanor Doyle

VICKY ANN is the name of the first child of the GONZALO MAREÑOS of 26 Second avenue. This bit of sugar and spice made her debut on December 6, tipping the scales at six pounds, five ounces upon her arrival at Mount Zion. The baby's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. Pope of Hillsborough.

MRS. VIOLET NAVARRA of Abbot recently was honored at a stork-shower given by Mrs. Lyle Prunty and Mrs. Adeline Navarra at the latter's home on Niantic. Guests were Mesdames Norma Cooney, Ardis Arvidson, Evelylin Ziegler, Alice Piozza, Irene Zerobato, Nickie De Dominic, Mae Thomas, Sandy Pimsner, Katherine Biancaloni, Rose Smalley, Lucille Tromberg and Miss Carole Navarra, daughter of the recipient. Violet and Adeline, who are sisters, also are sister-in-laws to one another. (Married brothers.)

Did you know? That ordinary as well as collector's issues of cancelled stamps are of value? The regular 2c and 3c stamps are used, along with the special issue stamps, to support a forty-bed children's tubercular ward maintained by the Sons and Daughters of Norway Pilot club.

The stamps are sent back to Norway where the dye is extracted by a special process and then sold to be used again. Three pounds of cancelled stamps will keep two babies in the hospital for one year. The great significance of this work is more fully realized when we consider thousands of Norwegian children during the war have become more acute as these children near adolescence. By saving and sending these stamps a truly humanitarian endeavor is being supported.

Bring or send them to the church office of the First Congregational Church at Post and Mason in care of Miss E. Griffiths who will later forward them to the Tubrim, the organization in charge of this project. . . or Mrs. Ann Ingersoll of 439 Crocker.

Newest addition to the ALLEN CARR family at 891 Lausanne is MISS MARIE ALISA, who checked in at St. Luke's on December 6, weighing in at eight pounds, two ounces. The new arrival is the sister of Leslie, five, Michael, three, and Joanne, one. The children's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ulvang and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Carr both of San Francisco.

Holy Angels church was the recent setting for the christening of MICHAEL VINCENT, son of the FRANK J. KELLYS of Hillside boulevard. Last Saturday's birthday girl was MISS PENNY QUINTEROS of Abbot who reigned at her first birthday party when she observed her ninth year. Helping to share the party treats were: Dale Heneise, Ruth Ann Huelse, Linda Alcade, Cindy Baker, Julie Vasquez, Sheryl Carascio, Ramona and Moneta Lemon, cousins, Susan Kelley and "Penny" sister and brother Linda and Master Stevie.

In the past few weeks the EDWARD KEARNS on Frankfort have been busy getting reacquainted with his mother, Mrs. Anna Modjeski, and sister, Mrs. Bernice Kowlezyh, after not seeing one another for over ten years. Ed's sister just recently returned to her nursing job at the Bethany Methodist hospital in Chicago after enjoying a ten-day visit here. On Christmas Eve Mrs. Modjeski is scheduled to fly to her home on Lake Geneva in Walworth, Wisconsin.

One day last week two of our local women, MRS. MARY WAKEFIELD of Evergreen and Mrs. Grace L. Mangarrez of Larchmont avenue, Colma, visited the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank where Mrs. W. gave another pint of blood, a total amount of 40 pints, now making it an even five gallons, with Mrs. M. giving her eighth pint.

Mrs. Wakefield has been giving blood at regular intervals since 1942.

Being a December birthday girl, LINDA MADONICH of Peoria feted her eighth one with a Christmas theme birthday party. Linda's invited guests were Nancy and Colleen Halloran, Lindsay Brett, Caroline Barsonti, Nancy Moseman and Susan and Jeffery, Linda's sister and brother.

Last Saturday evening MRS. ANN INGERSOLL entertained the wives of the officers in her husbands lodge at her home on Crocker. While the men attended their own installation dinner, the guests enjoyed a delightful dinner at the Ingersoll home. The money collected for this affair was later donated for church work at the Grace Presbyterian church at Crocker and Winchester.

After the usual exchanging of Christmas gifts at the home of their hostess the members of the BIRTHDAY CLUB adjourned to enjoy luncheon at Chip's Serenade. This month's birthday girl and gift recipient was MRS. BILLIE GLIKSIR of Winston Manor. Hostess for the occasion was MRS. EILA SONTAG of Abbot.

Belated birthday wishes to . . . the VAN AKENS, KENNY (Dad), and TOMMY, on Abbot. . . MR. FRED HESS on Hillside boulevard . . . BARBARA DICECKSON on Chester, who is now a teenager . . . CARMELITA GONZALES, also of Hillside . . . SHERRY ANSALDO and LINDA ORNELLAS, both of Abbot . . . JIMMIE and DENNY SERVA.

Three of our local boys, buddies since grammar school days, Private VERNON WALIGORA, RICHARD RICCI and FRANK CRIMELE, are home on furlough together, their first leave since joining the U. S. Marine Corps on August 10. Vernon is the son of the STANLEY WALIGORAS on San Diego. Richard's parents are the TONY RICCI of Peoria, and FRANK is the son of the JAMES DIRENZOS on San Joaquin.

Belated but happy anniversary wishes to . . . the SWARTZ-FAGERS, "BILL and FLO," of B street, Colma, their twelfth year as Mr. and Mrs. . . . while ITALO and ROSE BORELLA on Lowell celebrated their thirtieth Tuesday.

Cause for rejoicing these days at the LOUIS STARK home on Lausanne is due to the recent homecoming of their daughter SUSAN, after six weeks of convalescing at the UC hospital. Miss Susan is scheduled for more corrective surgery when she is four years old.

MRS. JAN BUCHANAN of Atlanta, zone manager for Beauty Counselor products, has added MRS. DONNA JEAN JONES of Miriam to her fast growing staff of representatives. Anyone interested in selling or buying this product can call Jan at Plaza 5-8622.

MRS. DOROTHY CREASY of Abbot, health chairman for Hillside PTA, and your reporter, represented Daly City at the recent 1957 pre-kickoff Polio luncheon given at the Villa Chartier. The Mother's March of Dimes is tentatively scheduled for the evening of January 31, headed by MRS. SANFORD VICKERS.

The GEORGE SANTOS on Willets recently enjoyed a visit with their nephew, Staff Sergeant HERBERT FISHER, while en route from Washington, D. C., for duty in Okinawa.

MRS. JAN GILMORE surprised her husband for his birthday with a small dinner party at their home on Brunswick. Dinner guests were the Roy Gilmores, Rogers Parents, Jack Haviland and the Frank Priscos.

3 Westlake Youths Eye 'Grim' Xmas

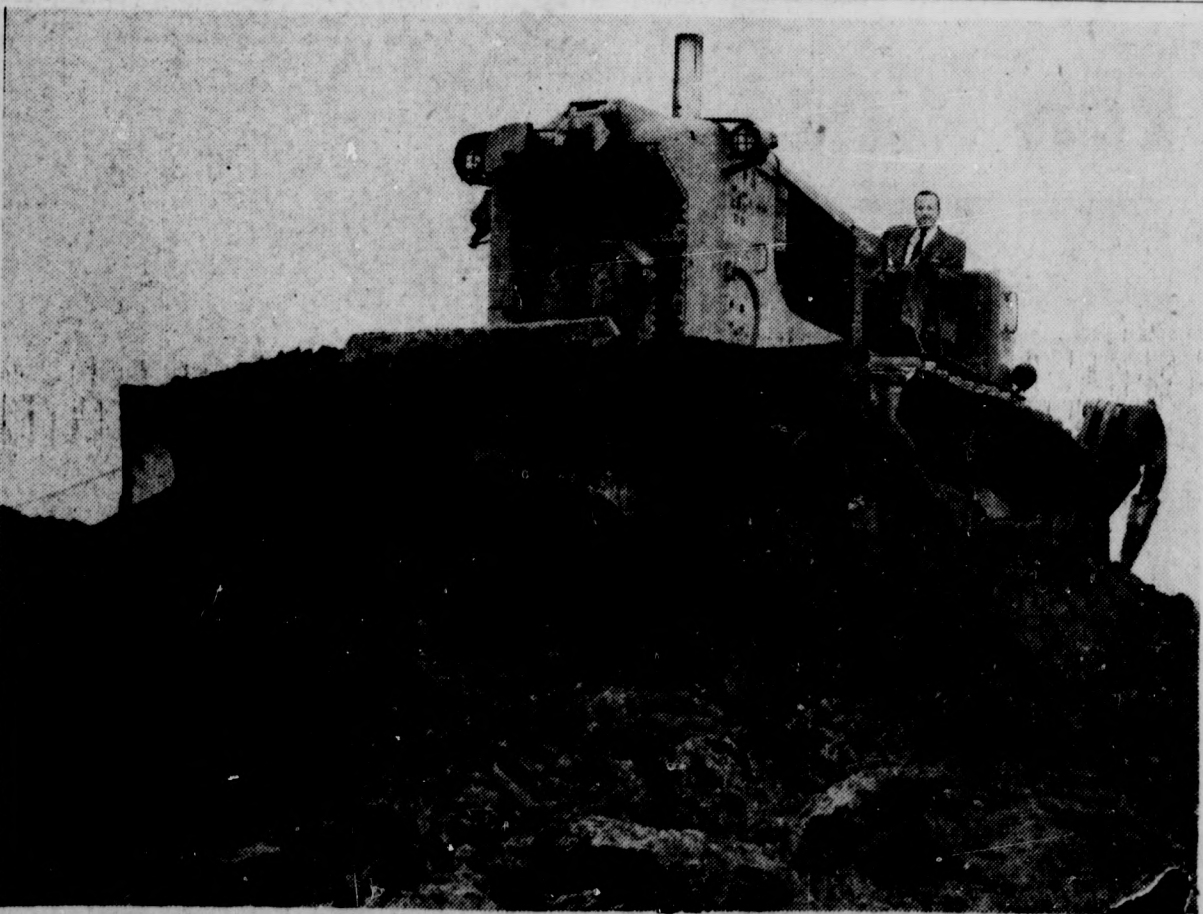

Three 10-year-old boys, students at Westlake school, may not observe a very merry Christmas.

The trio were booked by police Friday after admitting they broke $200 worth of windows at Olympia school on the previous Sunday.

Bad part of the situation is that their fathers must pay for the damages.

Released to their parents, the boys were warned that another such incident would result in action by juvenile authorities.

The anti-submarine carrier USS LEYTE celebrated ten years of service with the Fleet when the ship's Commanding Officer and members of the crew appeared on the "I've Got a Secret" TV show. Commissaryman Milton Harp baked a cake weighing a ton-and-a-half for the occasion.

JOHN DOELGER, vice president and general manager of Henry Doelger, Inc., takes the first cut through the "hump" on Southgate avenue in Westlake. Plans call for the leveling of the entire right of way of the abandoned Ocean Shore railroad. The right of way has been the cause of many years of legal maneuvering and has resulted in a line of separation through Westlake that has dead-ended streets and caused long detours to get from Broadmoor to Westlake for motorists and pedestrians alike.

Merced Auxiliary Fetes Holidays With Annual Party

The holiday spirit invaded the Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW last week as the annual Christmas party was held.

Secret Pal club members also exchanged Christmas gifts.

Refreshments were served after the lighting of miniature candy Christmas trees, the inspiration of Maryann Read, Secret Pal chairman. Co-Chairman Anita Woods pinned a candystick corsage that matched the decorations on the plates. Members enjoying the festivities were Stella Magoon, Rose Fisher, Hazel Eagleton, Agnes Siranni, LaNita Dunn, Cleora Read, Edith Solbakken, Marietta Lacey, Dorothy Heim, Simone Posadas, Evelyn Dull and Dorothy Afafara.

The annual Christmas party for the children will take place this Saturday at 8 p.m. Following the party the adults will hold a dance.

Navy ships operated by nuclear power will not be confronted with the limitations of fuel capacity. The potential energy in a two-pound lump of uranium the size of a golf ball equals about 460,000 gallons of fuel oil or 3,000 tons of coal.

It is believed that this is the first time the beautiful but difficult oratorio has been presented in Daly City, according to the Reverend Roy L. Milam.

Edward Tracy, guest tenor soloist, recently was chosen from among 16 aspirants for the tenor part of the oratorio given this year by the 300-voices San Mateo Municipal Choir.

Others participating will be Mrs. Jimmy Lederer, organist; Mrs. Ray MacIntosh, piano accompanist; and choir members Mrs. Dorothy Gray, Mrs. Lois Lithgow, Mrs. High, Mrs. Reaser, Miss Radine Christain, Mrs. Lavenna Christain, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Alice Grim, Mrs. Blanche Mann, Miss Irene Mann, Allen Miller, Beverly High, Percy Walker, Marguerite Walker, Irene Smith and Eleanor Suiter.

"There Were Shepherds," by Charles Vincent, with text from Luke 2:8-14, will be sung by St. Martin's Episcopal church choir in the Christmas Eve Choral service at 11 p.m., next Monday in Westlake auditorium. Mrs. George McKay will sing soprano solo portions, directed by George A. Ritter, organist.

Greens, Christmas flowers, and candlelight will provide a festive background for the midnight communion ritual, enhanced by the singing of "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "Silent Night, Holy Night," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing."

"Jesus' Birthday Party" is the theme of the Sunday school service at 9:30 a.m., December 23. Gifts of food for the needy are being brought by the children. Holy Cross Church Sets Xmas Service For This Sunday

Christmas will be celebrated at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in scripture, sermon and song during a special service at 11 a.m. this Sunday in Room 2 of the Pedro Valley School, the Rev. Edgar A. Doering has announced.

Because the congregation does not yet have a church building it will be impossible for them to have a Christmas Eve Service this year.

Stressing the true meaning of Christmas, the service will include the familiar Nativity Story from Luke and many Christmas carols beloved by Christians for many years. The sermon by Pastor Doering will be, "Christmas Was God's Idea." The choir will sing an anthem, "All My Heart."

Sunday School of Holy Cross Lutheran will observe its first Christmas program during the Sunday School hour at 9:30 a.m. on the same day.

NEW SANCTUARY for Broadmoor Community Presbyterian church on 87th street is proceeding on schedule and is planned for completion in February, 1957. The $75,000 structure, which will accommodate 250 persons, also includes a three-story addition to the present church building.

W. Portal Lutheran Youth Groups Plan Carols For Shut-ins

Youth groups of West Portal Lutheran Church will spend this Sunday evening caroling at the homes of shut-ins, according to the Reverend A. H. Haake.

Chairmen for the evening's activities are Fred Schweiger and Gene Zahnow. Mr. and Mrs. Don Hingst are counselors for the groups.

This Sunday's church services are at 8:30 and 11 a.m. and at 7:30 p.m. Sunday school and Bible classes start at 9:45 a.m. Advent services will be held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock and 7 and 8 p.m.

PRESBYTERIANS TO FEATURE 3 SERVICES

Three services will be featured Sunday at Broadmoor Community Presbyterian church. At 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Carlos Mattson will read "And Mary Pondered," assisted by the women's choral group.

Following this at 11 a.m. the Rev. John A. Glasse, minister, will deliver a Christmas message, "The First Christmas," with music by the sanctuary choir under direction of Delmar Severy, organist-director.

New members will be received and sacrament of baptism will be ministered for adults and children by previous arrangement with the minister.

At 4 p.m. the special candlelight service, with the cantata "King of Kings," by Daniel Protheroe, will be presented with the augmented sanctuary.

Child care will be provided for all three services.

'Men Of Note' Perform With Xmas Numbers

"Men Of Note," San Francisco male chorus which includes Coastside and Daly City members, welcomed the holiday season with a gala Christmas party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Driscoll, 2546 16th avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh DeFrancis were co-chairmen for the festivities, which included a buffet supper and much singing.

After Monday night's short business meeting, the "Men Of Note" disbanded for the holidays, reconvening on January 7 for the spring season. At that time, additional members will be considered, according to Howard Chapman, membership chairman. All men interested in joining the group should call JU 4-8135 or JU 4-4666 before January 7 as membership will be open for only limited time after that date.

Christmas Vesper Rites For Lutherans

The festival of Christmas will be observed at Bethel Lutheran church, Alemany boulevard and Huron avenue, with a Christmas Eve Vesper service on December 24, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Iru Price, organist, will present Christmas music on the organ and hymns beginning at 7:15 o'clock. The general theme of the service is: "Prophecy and Fulfillment."

In the course of the service, the four "Prophecy Lights" placed in the "Advent Wreath" will be lighted. The number four refers to the four weeks of the Advent Season, the 4000 years of waiting for the promised Savior, and the four Gospels in which the fulfillment of the Lord's coming is recorded.

A choral group will render several Christmas selections.

A brief meditation will be given by the Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder.

The Christmas day festival service will be held at 10 a.m. The junior choir will sing, under the direction of Miss Gladys Schultz. The pastor will preach on the subject, "God Sent His Son."

Special Christmas Pageantry Readied By Hope Lutherans

As part of the Christmas festival services, Hope Lutheran church, Old San Pedro road, west of Junipero Serra boulevard, will hold a special service of Christmas music and pageantry sponsored by the two choirs and the young people on Christmas Eve at 11 p.m.

In preparation for this service the young adults of the church have decorated the chancel of the church with 17 Christmas trees. A manger scene which will serve also as the background for the service has been built by several men of the church. This display will be open to the public from December 19 to December 25.

The account of the first Christmas will be presented with the young people taking the part of the Biblical characters for the Christmas Eve service. Among the more interesting of the musical offerings by the children's choir will be one of the first American Indian Christmas carols sung to the accompaniment of a tom-tom.

After the Christmas pageant,

Sunday School Kids Stage Xmas Program

Sunday School youngsters of Assembly of God Church, Evergreen and Hanover streets, presented their annual Christmas program last night before a "well-satisfied" audience.

Featured were selected readings and songs by the primary and junior departments, and a one-act play entitled "You Are There," presented by the young adult class under the direction of Bill Scott.

The Navy's new cruiser, USS CANBERRA, is an exception to the rule that all cruisers are named after American cities. It was named for the gallant Australian cruiser CANBERRA, which went down along with three American cruisers in the Battle of Savo Island during World War II.

The traditional Christmas Eve candlelighting service, with all worshippers participating, will conclude the service.

The Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord will be observed with a service on Christmas Day at 11 a.m. The Rev. Louis C. Marting, pastor, will deliver the sermon.

On Sunday, December 23, both the children's choir and the senior choir will offer special Christmas music.

The bride's mother selected a Dior model dress for the occasion, which featured royal blue crepe with matching accessories, set off by pink orchids.

Best man was the new Mrs. King's brother, Madison Anderson, Jr., while another brother of the bride, David Stephan Anderson, served as usher.

The groom, son of Mrs. Joseph W. King of New Orleans, is a chief engineer for Alcoa Steamship company.

His bride is a secretary at Bethlehem Pacific Coast Steel Corp. For her going away costume, the bride chose a light green suit with brown accessories. The newlyweds plan a two-month honeymoon throughout the United States before returning to make their home in New Orleans.

FIFTH GRADE
MRS. CLARKE

By Freda Graves

Our class made stained glass windows. One window is about Mary and Joseph holding the baby Jesus. On another we made a scene of "Away in the Manger," with Jesus in a bed of hay. On the last one there is a plain church window.

We made all of this out of crepe and colored paper. After we finished the scene we cut long strips of black crepe paper and placed them in all kinds of designs, and now they look just like real church windows. I think it is very pretty.

By Vivian Yule

Recently our class went to the Junior Museum in San Mateo, with Mrs. McClellan's class.

Our guide met us at the door and showed us everything in the museum. There was a scene of Moss Beach, a forest of redwoods, and many other scenes of California. We saw some live reptiles in glass cases. Downstairs we saw many other animals. A guide passed around some of the tame animals. We got to pet a racoon, hold a rabbit, guinea pig, rat and others.

After we went through the museum our bus driver took us around to the other side of the campus where we ate our lunch. We had a lot of fun at the Junior Museum.

By Ardyth Hogley

Last week we had a rally for the champion kickball team. Every student at the Crocker school attended. The winning team was Mrs. McClellan's 6th Grade class.

All of our athletic representatives went up on the stage. There was one girl representative whose name was Charlotte. We are now playing the game called net ball. It is a good game to play. We have a physical education director to help us in just about every kind of sport. His name is Mr. Huajardo.

We hope our class wins the award this time.

By Sandra Walter

Professor Walter Haderer came to our school. He is a teacher of string instruments at San Francisco State College. He showed us a violin, viola and bass viol. Mr. Cody, director of our school orchestra, brought the cello. Mr. Haderer let some of the children play the instruments. As they played, the rest of us sang, "Susie, Little Susie." He told us that most of the bows are made from horses' tails. He told about the many different parts of the violin, viola, cello and bass viol. When he left we knew a lot about these instruments. We were very glad that Professor Walter Haderer came to our school.

FOURTH GRADE
MRS. GARDNER

Mrs. Cordell, the Art Coordinator, came to our class to show us how to work with clay. With her help we each made an animal or figure of a person. When the clay figures are dry we will fire them in the school kiln.

Our room is decorated for Christmas. We made all of the ornaments on our tree and are making a gift for our mothers. Our class wishes all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

And at this time all the staff at the Crocker School would like to take this opportunity to wish the staff of THE RECORD a very happy holiday season, and to again thank you for your most generous cooperation with our teachers and students during the past year.

Old St. Nick Tops Hillside PTA Meet

Hillside PTA's regular meeting last Wednesday night had all the Christmas trimmings, including Old St. Nick himself.

Santa arrived shortly after the first three graders at Colma school entertained parents and teachers with a gay Christmas program. The visitor from the North Pole gave each performer some candy, which added to fruit punch and cupcakes, proved a real delight.

Regular business meeting was short due to the Yule activities. Top item was a check from DeLeon Studio of Music to help the PTA group buy raincoats for the school's traffic boys.

Bayshore-Midway PTA Session Has Religious Theme

"Faith And Our Children" was the theme for the regular meeting of the Bayshore-Midway Parent Teacher Association last Wednesday in Bayshore auditorium.

The Rev. Ray Ames, Bayshore Baptist church, was guest speaker. The junior chorus, under the direction of Mr. James Sharpen, sang several Christmas songs.

Mrs. Don Smith was named chairman for the Rag Drive to be held in January. Mrs. Marse Datzman gave a report from her committee on the Christmas party for students.

An invitation was extended to Dorothy Fitzgerald, Bayshore principal, and Natalie Lipman, superintendent of Bayshore, Midway and Brisbane schools, to attend the 17th District California Congress of Parents and Teachers annual dinner meeting January 17. Mrs. John Pleskach, president, and Mrs. Roy E. Anglen, vice-president, also will attend.

Mrs. Rea Willis' first grade students won the attendance banner for the most parents attending the meeting.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Earl Robertson and her committee.

Wee Campfire Gals Enjoy Xmas Party At Leader's Home

Preliminary hearing on Louis Arata and William Dower, alleged operators of a $3000 a day Colma bookmaking headquarters, will continue next Friday before Judge Thomas L. Bocci Jr. in municipal court.

The accused pair were arrested at 1387 Old Mission road in a raid November 8 by sheriff's and district attorney's officers.

Telephones, a radio and racing charts comprised evidence submitted at the first hearing last Thursday. Inspector A. L. Lamport of the district attorney's office identified a racing form as having markings of winners in races at Bay Meadows, Laurel and Jamaica tracks. He testified that figures on the form showed that "bets had been received."

The alleged bookmakers are free on $1000 bail.

Carpenter faces trial for the alleged holdup of Tiny's Tavern, 6045 Mission street. Bartender Abe Rosenstein was bound and gagged by two armed men who took $3000 from the bar safe.

Shortly after the holdup, Carpenter was arrested in Stockton for San Francisco police who wanted him on another charge. He had been in San Francisco City Prison since that time.

Colma Salesman Fined $1000 For Fatal Car Crash

Richard J. Ames, 33, Colma salesman who was involved in an automobile crash June 21 on Bayshore Freeway resulting in the death of a truck driver and injury to four other persons, was fined $1000 on an involuntary manslaughter charge last week in Central District Municipal Court.

Ames, 816 Thornhill drive, was found guilty by a jury two weeks ago on the involuntary manslaughter charge and also on a charge of drunk driving.

Judge J. A. Branson placed him on probation for a year on condition he spend six months in the county jail, then suspended the jail term if he pays the fine in 60 days. There was no fine or jail sentence on the drunk driving charge but legal requirements are that Ames must forfeit his license for a year.

Killed in the accident was Donald Ross, 26, of Swarthmore in Tulare county. The mishap occurred early in the morning when Ames' car crashed into a group of motorists who were endeavoring to assist the driver of an other car which had overturned.

POTTINGER - PEPPED JEFF EYES CAGE CROWN

THESE SEVEN mainstays hold the key to Jefferson's title hopes in the North PAL basketball race which opens for the Indians

Pottinger, Center Dennis Marc, Guard Delmar Scott, Guard Barry Haanen and Guard Gary Ryan. Coach Mike Orlich's club has a 3-4 practice record to date, the wins coming over Tamapais, Lincoln of San Francisco and Sonora. Last time out the Tribe lost a 45-44 thriller to Balboa, rated the team to beat in San Francisco.

Sizzling Larry Pottinger and his Jefferson varsity mates have their sights zeroed in on the North PAL cage title as they await the opening whistle against defending champion San Mateo here January 4.

The Indians, tabbed as contenders along with the Bearcats, Capuchino and Burlingame, have good reason to be optimistic. Coach Mike Orlich, who brought home the '53 crown with an unbeaten team, thinks this will be another big Jeff season.

Looking Back

Last year the Tribe led the loop with a 5-0 slate midway through the campaign. But they hit a cold streak the rest of way and finished with a 5-5 mark. One of their wins came over San Mateo, who reversed the score in their second meeting.

To date, Orlich's squad has a 3-4 practice record. Through it appears unimpressive, it isn't, because the Indians are pacing themselves for an all-out push when the league scrambles begin.

Jeff rolled along "on schedule" last week by turning back potent Lincoln of San Francisco, 39-35, and Sonora, 55-54. Tuesday afternoon they battled mighty Balboa right to the final buzzer before losing a thriller, 45-44.

Larry Supreme

Pottinger, slick senior southpaw, was outstanding in the three clashes and ran his per game average to 14.7 for seven games. Larry potted 24 against Lincoln, shattered Sonora with 22, and added 16 in the Balboa close. Right now he looms as one of the best in the North PAL. If he gets enough support, the Tribe may hit the top spot.

Pottinger's steady forward partner, Bob Comstock, gives Jeff a solid one-two punch. Tom Cloutier and Dennis Marc are battling for starting center duty, while Orlich has three good guards in Gary Ryan, Barry Haanen and Delmar Scott.

The Indians scrimmaged Lincoln of SF again Wednesday and will tackle Mission at Kezar next Thursday in their final practice game.

Lightweights Win

Steve Mezerra's 30's, paced by forward Wayne Lewis, hiked their record to 3-2 Tuesday by clipping Balboa, 37-36. Lewis tanked 10 points and Ino Patron was next with 7.

Last week the Jeff lightweights were clipped by Lincoln, 33-31, but blasted Sonora, 42-34, as Lewis bucketed 18. Center Ernie Howren led the Indians against Lincoln with 7 markers.

Resurgent M&O Keglers Knot Pedromen For Lead

W'moor Varsity Takes 3rd Loss By 32-20 Count

Westmoor's varsity cagers, handicapped by the absence of high scoring Rich Lewetou, suffered their third loss of the campaign last week to Lincoln's jayvees of San Francisco, 32-20.

Roaring like a hurricane, McGahey & Olson's keggers pulled up even with "upstart" San Pedro Lunch in the Daly City-Colma loop Tuesday night as the first round of play ended in a heated first-place deadlock.

McGahey & Olson, replaced on top by the Lunchmen three weeks ago, gained a tie for the lead by whitewashing Vince & Fred's, while San Pedro was split-decided by the "spoiler" Brisbane unit.

In earlier starts, the Rams dropped a pair to Lick-Wilmerding, 48-38 and 37-27. Lewetou tallied 24 points in the contests.

Tony Giammona's Ram 30's dropped their first game to the Lincoln lightweights, 29-18. They previously toppled Lick-Wilmerding's juniors, 33-31 and 26-25.

The Rams will be idle until after the holidays.

Brisbane's W. Strassberger was the hottest man on the lanes, rolling high singles with a 246 third game. His series tally was 573.

"Mr. Reliable," Del Fehl of the Lunchmen, rolled the high series of 580 on games of 203, 202 and 175.

Other blank jobs were posted by Paul's Flowers over Daly City Cleaners and Carlo's Pizzeria over Carmona Chemical.

Victors by 2-1 counts were Thur Meats over Westlake Homes, Donnellan Realty over Luce Meats and Plaza Furniture over dormat Edisco. Town House and Bank of America divided right down the middle at 1½-all.

The Keglers have two weeks to rest before second half action commences.

DC Rifle & Pistol Club Sets 2nd Turkey Shoot

Colma's Cats, Dragons Cop Volleyball Titles

Volleyball playoffs topped Colma school's recent sports competition as the Cats and the Dragons emerged as champs in the seventh and eighth grades respectively.

The Cats, National League titlists, dumped the Hornets, American loop kings, by a 37-17 score. In the eighth grade showdown, the Dragons walloped the Black Hawks, National loop winners, with a two-day tally of 65-26.

Key men for the Dragons were Captain Ken Magoon, Bruce Howard, Sonny Stoller, Bob Avila, Mike Seelig, Mike Godsey, Wayne Pickering and John Wilson.

After the Christmas recess, basketball will take the spotlight in daily P. E. classes and the noon intramural program.

Daly City's Mission Rifle and Pistol club will hold its second turkey shoot of the season this Sunday at the club's rifle range located at Rockaway Beach.

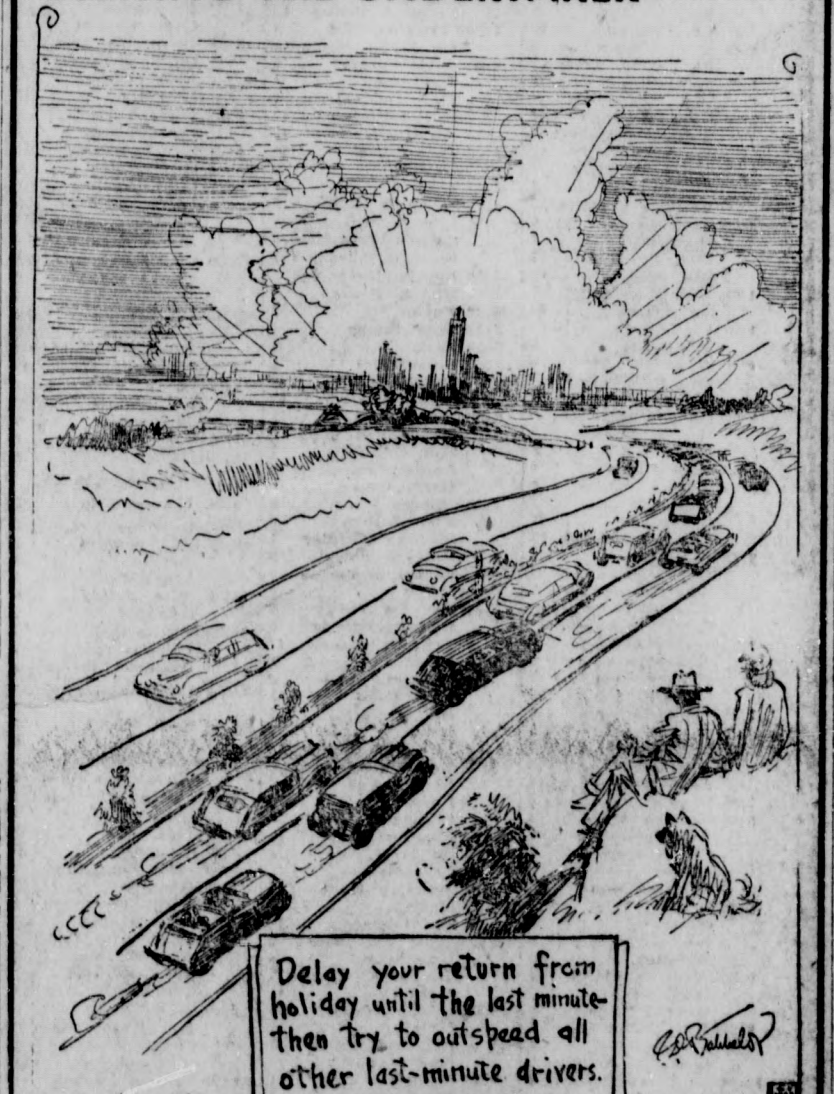

Targets will be stationary "running" deer at a distance of 200 yards from the marksmen. Big bore rifles and ammunition will be furnished by the club to all who need them.

Twelve turkeys were given away at the club's first turkey shoot in November. Some excellent scores were recorded despite heavy winds, according to Paul Rasmussen, publicity manager.

Sunday's shindig also will feature a drawing for the club's "Special Shoot Award." The public is invited to attend.

Next meeting of the organization will be December 26 at the Lake Merced Boat House.
